IRO Certificate #4599

NOTICE OF INDEPENDENT REVIEW DECISION

July 26, 2002

Re: IRO Case # M2-02-0648-01

Texas Worker's Compensation Commission:

___ has been certified as an independent review organization (IRO) and has been authorized to perform independent reviews of medical necessity for the Texas Worker's Compensation Commission (TWCC). Texas HB. 2600, Rule133.308 effective January 1, 2002, allows a claimant or provider who has received an adverse medical necessity determination from a carrier's internal process, to request an independent review by an IRO.

In accordance with the requirement that TWCC assign cases to certified IRO's, TWCC assigned this case to ___ for an independent review. ___ has performed an independent review of the proposed care to determine if the adverse determination was appropriate. For that purpose, ___ received relevant medical records, any documents obtained from parties in making the adverse determination, and any other documents and/or written information submitted in support of the appeal.

The case was reviewed by a physician who is Board Certified in Anesthesiology with an added qualification in Pain Management. He or she has signed a certification statement attesting that no known conflicts of interest exist between him or her and any of the treating physicians or providers, or any of the physicians or providers who reviewed the case for a determination prior to referral to ___ for independent review. In addition, the certification statement further attests that the review was performed without bias for or against the carrier, medical provider, or any other party to this case.

The ___ reviewer who reviewed this case has determined that, based on the medical records provided, the requested treatment is not medically necessary. Therefore, ___ agrees with the adverse determination regarding this case. The reviewer's decision and the specific reasons for it, is as follows:

History
This case involves a 31-year-old male who developed a sharp pain in his back on ___ as he reached for his uniform. He has chronic low back and neck pain and has not responded to epidural steroid injections or chiropractic treatment. The psychological evaluation indicates depression. A surveillance video shows strenuous activities performed by the patient.

Requested Service
Chronic pain management program.

Decision
I agree with the carrier's decision to deny the requested chronic pain management program.

Rationale
The records provided present no indication for the requested program. There is evidence of malingering. If depression is present, the first line of treatment is antidepressant medication. There is no indication in the records provided that an antidepressant medical regime has been established.

This medical necessity decision by an Independent Review Organization is deemed to be a Commission decision and order.
